Meeting Night

October 12, 2022

The putting Championship is here. After several months of battling to qualify for the first Los Verdes Putting Champion Belt Buckle this month, we crown our 2021 Putting Champion.

I want to thank Jim Louder, Tony Vinter and Wayne Perry for all their hard work in conducting the Putting contest this year. They have done a great job.

It is only befitting that for such a grand occasion we are going to have a steak BBQ. Yes, I will be cooking thanks to Mike Swanson he has secured the grill from Andy's Termite. Along with the steaks we will have potatoes salad chef choice of vegetables desert, coffee and tee station and of course a keg of beer.

The price for dinner this month is $35.00, which is an amazing deal. You tell me where in the south bay you can get a complete steak dinner for that price.

As a note for those you that buy a dinner ticket you will get a preference of a tee time for the October tournament.

Looking forward to seeing everyone on meeting night.

Gentlemen -

Thank you to all who participated in the Member/Guest tournament this past weekend. I think a good time was had by many. I had a wonderful time putting the event on, it could not have been the success it was without Karen Turner's effort and the efforts of the entire Turner Family. Thank you to all who assisted in various aspects, it was greatly appreciated. Rick, Evan, Tom, and the entire new management team really treated us to a nice welcome, and a wonderful day.

The highlight of the tournament for me was getting to see multiple pairings of multiple generations, many fathers and sons playing together. I haven't had that experience yet but I could see so many people making memories that will last a lifetime. One of the winning teams was a pairing of a grandfather Ted Wells, playing with his grandson Jeff Wells Jr. How cool is that?!

We have confirmed the nominees for next year's board of directors, and I look forward to passing the torch to Jeff Wells as the end of the year and having he and the new board leading us forward into 2023.

Tournament Chairman Paul Hendrickson

Members,

Congratulations to both Chris Vassallo and Chad Weitzman on winning the White Classic.

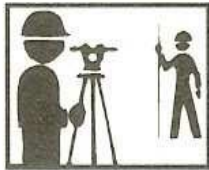

They won on a 15-foot par putt by Chris Vassallo on hole 18. Their worthy adversaries were Heinrich Klingner and Mike Benedetto. These guys know each other so well that we did not need a referee for this friendly match as is usually the case in the finals match. Heinrich and Mike were up by 2 with 3 to play. Again, Congratulations to Chris Vassallo and Chad Weitzman.

Make sure to Congratulate Chad Weitzman when you see him at the course. Well done , these gentleman will be formally recognized at the December Awards meeting.

Good luck this month

WEEKDAY TOURNAMENT SNAP- SHOTS – OCT. 1, 2022

We tried a new format for September – Partner Blind Draw, Combined Net, by Flight!

Competitors played their round and turned in their cards. Players were put into flights (low, mid, high) based on their handicaps. Names were drawn by my 9-year-old grandson to create partners, whose score was the combined total of their net scores (example: 71 + 73 = 144). The blind draw created some interesting teams, many of whom do not know each other! And the course played hard last week as evidenced by the amount of higher scores.

Congratulations to Angels Flight winners Paul DeAlleaume and Michael Kim who shot a combined 141 (-1) and were the only team to shoot par or better. Dan Burns/Jim Kirner and Robert Murio/Scott Sullivan tied for second place with 146. Scott was a last-minute replacement in my Friday groups and it sure paid off to be flexible!

The Dodgers Flight saw a first place tie between John Fabis/Ken Schueler and Sam Hayati/Jake Kamen with 145. Jag Chopra and Robert Martin finished in third place.
